The Grand Hotel Leon d'Oro is a big, elegant and very comfortable hotel located in the heart of Bari, just in front of the railway station (you probably see the image of the station reflected by the mirror doors of the hotel). Lodging in this hotel would be a “strategic” choice since you will have to walk just few minutes either if you want to do shopping in the multitude of stores in the city center or if you want to spend time visiting the historical treasures in the Old Town.
